About the Fellowship

The Fox International Fellowship is a graduate student exchange program between Yale University and 21 world-renowned academic partners in Africa, Asia, Australia, Europe, the Middle East, and the Americas. There are more than 700 alumni in the extensive Fox Fellowship network.

Our Mission

The mission of the Fox International Fellowship is to enhance mutual understanding between the peoples of the United States and other countries by promoting international scholarly exchanges and collaborations among the next generation of leaders. To accomplish this goal, the program seeks to identify and nurture those students who are interested in harnessing scholarly knowledge to respond to the world's most pressing challenges.

History & Expansion

Established in 1988 by Joseph Carrère Fox, Yale '38, with the vision to “promote international education as a pathway to global peace and stability.”

Initial Partnership: First partnered with Moscow State University.

Global Expansion:

The program has grown to include 21 partner universities across the globe, reflecting a commitment to broadening international educational opportunities.
