Yale MACMILLAN CENTER

Collaborative International Research 2025 - what you will need to apply

1. Applying Faculty Member:
   Name
   Email Address
   Yale Department
   Rank/Position

2. Affiliated Council(s) or Global Program(s) (if any):

3. Study Title or Topic

4. Amount requested

5. Study Start Date

6. Estimated Date of Study Completion

7. Have you identified the staff member (at MacMillan or in your home department) who will provide administrative support for this project, if granted funding?

8. Have you applied or do you plan to apply for other sources of funding for this project? If so, indicate the other source(s), amount(s), and date(s) a decision is expected

9. List all other sources of funding, including Yale, which you have available now or had available for this study in previous years. Please include other source(s), amount(s), and date(s) received or expected.

10. Have you received prior support from the MacMillan Center Faculty Research Grants? If so, please list the last three MacMillan Faculty Research Grant year(s) and amount(s) you received.

11. Project description (2 pages). File should be in PDF format and follow the following naming format: [applicant name] Collaborative International Research 2025 Project Description.pdf.

12. Project budget proposal (itemized) with a timeline of activities. File should be in PDF format and follow the following naming format: [applicant name] Collaborative International Research 2025 Project Budget.pdf.

13. Curriculum vitae including ONLY those items relevant to the proposed project. File should be in PDF format and follow the following naming format: [applicant name] Collaborative International Research 2025 Curriculum Vitae.pdf.