

Yale MACMILLAN CENTER

Ethics in International Relations 2025 - what you will need to apply

1. Initiative Lead Contact:

Name
Email Address
Yale Department
Rank/Position

2. Affiliated Council(s) or Global Program(s) (if any):

3. Proposal

Proposals should be no longer than four pages, including the budget and budget justification. Please submit a document that includes the following information:

Program Leadership: Names and titles of proposed lead and additional team members.

Summary statement: Provide a summary paragraph describing in clear, non-expert terms what this new initiative aims to accomplish. This should be usable for the MacMillan website should the project be selected.

Work statement: Describe the activities this funding will enable.

Outcomes: Define what this funding will enable.

Collaboration: Please indicate if and how additional faculty and students will be involved and whether you will engage with external partners.

Budget and budget justification: A synopsis of the requested amount and how the funds will be spent for the two-year period and why they are needed. Please indicate whether funds are being sought through other MacMillan sponsored opportunities, and what the contingencies are if all funding is not secured.

Fundraising: If there are plans for growth of this work, please indicate potential future funding sources.

File should be in PDF format and follow the following naming format:
[applying initiative lead name] Castle Fund 2025 Project Description.pdf.

4. Have you applied or do you plan to apply for other sources of funding for this initiative?
5. Please indicate the other source(s), amount(s), and date(s) a decision is expected:
6. List all other sources of funding, including Yale, which you have available now or had available for this initiative in previous years. Please include other source(s), amount(s), and date(s) received or expected. In addition, if you expect to receive Yale funds for other projects, please describe
7. Have you received prior support from the MacMillan Center?
If so, please list the last three year(s) and amount(s) you received