

Yale MACMILLAN CENTER
for International & Area Studies

Please use this document to prepare your nomination for books published in the 2025 calendar year. Applications will only be accepted through the online portal and must be received by March 6, 2026. Since incomplete applications cannot be saved.

The Gustav Ranis International Book Prize is awarded to the best book by a Yale ladder faculty member. The Gaddis Smith International Book Prize is given to the best first book by a Yale ladder faculty member. Recipients receive a research appointment at the MacMillan Center and $5,000 in research funds, enabling them to further advance their scholarly work.

Items needed to nominate/apply for the 2026-2027 MacMillan Center International Book Prizes are below.

1. Author First and Last Name
2. Email Address
3. Yale Department
4. Prize for which you are applying
5. Book Title
6. Publisher
7. Publication Date
8. Summary of book (300 words max)

In addition to completing the online form, a hard copy of your book must be provided to the MacMillan Center by March 6, 2026 via the address below.

Yale MacMillan Center
c/o International Book Prize Committee
34 Hillhouse Ave
Suite 110
New Haven, CT 06511