

Yale MACMILLAN CENTER

for International & Area Studies

This PDF indicates the application materials required for 2026-2027 MacMillan Center faculty support opportunities.

1. Applying Faculty Member(s)
 - Name
 - Email Address
 - Yale Department
 - Title
2. Affiliated Council\(s\) or Global Program\(s\) (if any)
3. MacMillan Center Themes to which your project connects (if any)
4. Project title/topic
5. Project start & completion dates (mm/yy format)
6. Project description (750 words max)
7. Potential long-term, public-facing outcomes and how you intend to share them (200 words max)
8. If applicable, collaborating partner information (name of institution/not-for-profit/NGO partner and website) and description of state of partnership (500 words max)
9. Indication if/how students will play an active role in your project (150 words max)
10. If your project will require admin support from MacMillan, the name of the Council/Program that has agreed to provide this
11. Amount of funding requested and a basic, itemized project budget
12. If awarded funding, name & email of person to whom COA information should be sent

Additional, fund-specific, application materials:

Kempf (on-campus convening)

1. Names of potential invited speakers and your intended audience

Collaborative International Research

1. Description of how you will collaborate with Yale colleagues from different disciplines (250 words max)

Course Travel Abroad

1. Term(s) course will be offered (Fall 2026 and/or Spring 2027)
2. Number of students to be enrolled in course
3. Course description (250 words max)
4. Travel start & end dates (mm/dd/yy format)
5. Why travel is critical to the success of the course (150 words max)