

GLOBAL GOVERNANCE SERIES

presents the following Round Tables with Current United Nations Ambassadors

Wednesday, September 12, 2018

Maintaining International Peace and Security:
Visions from the Regions

Teodoro Lopez Locsin Jr., Ambassador of the Republic of the Philippines to the UN
Darja Bavdaž Kuret, Ambassador of Slovenia to the UN
Volodymyr Yelchenko, Ambassador of Ukraine to the UN
Maged Abdelfattah Abdelaziz, Ambassador and Permanent Observer for the League of Arab States to the UN

4:00pm, Luce Hall, Auditorium

Wednesday, October 31, 2018

Regional and Intercontinental Coalitions of States in Global Governance

Mohamed Fathi Ahmed Edrees, Ambassador of the Arab Republic of Egypt to the UN
Martin Garcia Moritán, Ambassador of Argentina to the UN
Jan Kickert, Ambassador of Austria to the UN
Vitavas Srivihok, Ambassador of Thailand to the UN

4:00pm, Luce Hall, Auditorium

Wednesday, November 14, 2018

Migration as a Global Challenge

Masud Bin Momen, Ambassador of Bangladesh to the UN
Aliioaiga Feturi Elisaia, Ambassador of the Independent State of Samoa to the UN
Omar Hilale, Ambassador of the Kingdom of Morocco to the UN
Michal Mlynár, Ambassador of Slovakia to the UN
Archbishop Bernardito C. Auza, Ambassador and Permanent Observer of the Holy See to the UN and Permanent Observer of the Holy See to the Organization of American States

4:00pm, Luce Hall, Auditorium

Upcoming Special Lecture to be scheduled this Fall:

Europe After Brexit featuring Dame Karen Pierce,
Ambassador of the United Kingdom to the UN

Series Organized and Moderated By:

Yuriy Sergeyev, (former) Ambassador of Ukraine to the UN; current Senior Fellow of the MacMillan Center