

STRATEGIES FOR SUSTAINABLE PEACE-BUILDING: IMPLEMENTATION AND POLICY

Scholars, practitioners, and policy-makers will speak about implementation challenges to designing resilient peace agreements, as well as engaged monitoring and fostering public participation when integrating peace agreements into policy.

Keynote speakers will focus on dilemmas of peace-making and strategic delivery of negotiated peace agreements. Specific examples are drawn from Africa and South America, as well as Ireland.

---

KEYNOTE SPEAKERS

Alexander Thurston
Political Science
University of Cincinnati

Monica McWilliams
Northern Ireland
Women's Coalition
Ulster University

---

NOVEMBER 14-15 2022

GREENBERG CONFERENCE CENTER, 391 PROSPECT STREET, NEW HAVEN

---

Organizers: Professor Josefina Echavarría, The Kroc Institute for International Peace Studies, Notre Dame University, Professor Catherine Panter-Brick and Ambassador Bisa Williams, Yale Jackson School of Global Affairs

Sponsored by: The Jackson School of Global Affairs and the Whitney and Betty MacMillan Center for International and Area Studies (including the Edward J. and Dorothy Clarke Kempf Memorial Fund; the Council on African Studies; the Council on Latin American & Iberian Studies; the Program on Conflict, Resilience and Health; and the Program on Peace and Development).

---

The colloquium is open to the Yale campus community.

To register or view the full program, go to jackson.yale.edu

---