

The George Herbert Walker, Jr. Lecture in International Studies

PRESENTS

Rory Stewart, OBE

Minister Stewart is a member of Parliament for Penrith and The Border – the largest geographical constituency in England – having been elected in 2010. In January 2018, he was appointed Minister of State at the Ministry of Justice, having previously been the Minister of State for Africa in both the Foreign and Commonwealth Office and the Department for International Development. His previous career was in foreign affairs, particularly focused on military intervention and international development. On leave from the Foreign Service he walked for 21 months crossing Iran, Afghanistan, Pakistan, India and Nepal, staying in 500 village houses on the journey.
